Ms. Dorsey White also shared that the Ethics Office provided guidance on 18 matters, of which the leading categories were General Inquiry/Administration and Disclosure Statements. The Board commented that it is good to see that inquiries for guidance go beyond financial disclosures.

Ms. Dorsey White shared that the Ethics Spotlight topic she will present at the April 20, 2022 Commission meeting will be “Keeping the ‘Personal’ Out of WSSC Water’s Business.” Chair Pruden inquired about how the Commissioners received the first two Ethics Spotlight presentations. Ms. Dorsey White indicated that they seemed to be well-received.

Ms. Dorsey White has reached out to the vendor and the issue has been escalated for resolution. Currently, this issue does not affect conflict of interest filers. She requested that the Board extend the filing deadline due to the significant delay in resolving this issue by the vendor. The Board granted Ms. Dorsey White’s request.
